MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation with John Elliff RE: CISPES
Requests

1. On 29 June 1988, I spoke with John Elliff regarding his requests which emanated from the 24 June 1988 review of the

[redacted] informed him [redacted] that the two cables referenced in documents which he wanted to see were not germane [redacted] He told me that the committee needs to know why not. Presumably everything in that file would be germane [redacted] hence to the investigation. Specifically, he wants to know why the [redacted] filed there if not germane and whether [redacted] is accurately summarized or whether it contains more information. [redacted]

3. He is anxious to learn the status of the outstanding document requests. I told him I hoped to ascertain this by Friday, 1 July 1988, and would get back to him. He is concerned because the SSCI is aiming for an early August open/closed hearing with Judge Sessions. Mr. Elliff wants all his requests completed by the first week of August.
